Prince of Kandy - Ceylon Tea, delicate with the almost greenish character that represents seasonal quality. The perfect Afternoon Tea, with a golden infusion and light flavour

Brilliant Breakfast - The name was 'coined' by an Edinburgh tea maker in his effort to market his tea. It's strength and character permit the addition of milk, but it's as good served straight

Nuwara Eliya Pekoe - Tea from Nuwara Eliya combines sophisticated flavour, with a delicate, golden infusion, recognizable by the delicate and gentle character and its mildly green finish

Single Estate Darjeeling - grown at 7,000 feet above sea level and within sight of Mount Everest. The light liquor is slightly floral and has a prominent Muscatel note in its finish

Earl Grey - Tea enhanced with the peel of a special variety of orange, combines tea with the flavour of bergamot. This Tea offers a rich and strong brew, enhanced with oil of Bergamot

Ceylon Young Hyson Green - Single Region Ceylon Green Tea grown at 1,400 feet above sea level. Elegant in appearance, the long, well twisted leaf yields a pleasingly gentle brew.

Single Estate Oolong - Oolong originated in the 18th Century in the Fujian Province of China. The dark green, well twisted leaf produces a mellow, pleasing liquor, delicate and mild tea

Tie Guan Yin - A delicate tea that is as pleasing in appearance and aroma as in the palate. The pale-yellow liquor is tinged with green and offers a gentle taste with hints of olive, herb

Ceylon Silver Tips - A rare white tea from the Nuwara Eliya region of Ceylon, grown at 6,000 feet elevation. The buds are sun dried and carefully hand rolled, producing the characteristic silver, needle-like buds, with a velvety texture.
